

I request that the FCC leave Indiana's No Call procedure alone. I do not want it to be adjusted since many of those who had called me before were a very big part of the problem. My experience so far has been greatly improved since I no longer have to deal with the harrassment from credit card companies and uninvited sales people.

Craig and Cristine Muir